

Brett M. Klein

Professional Background

- Trooper with the Iowa State Patrol 1980-1987.
- Joined the Tucson Police Department in 1987. Promoted through the ranks to Assistant Chief in 2009.
- Retired from TPD 2014.
- Joined the Arizona HIDTA in 2014 as the Deputy Director of Intelligence.
- Currently serving as the Deputy Director of the Arizona HIDTA.

Education

- Bachelor of Science-Northern Arizona University

Specialized Training

- FBI National Academy
- Senior Management Institute for Policing
- Southwest Leadership Program – University of Arizona Eller College of Management
- Institute for Public Executives – Arizona State University College of Public Programs

Professional Highlights/Affiliations

- Tucson Police Department Medal of Distinguished Service
- Tucson Police Department Medal of Merit (Twice Awarded)
- Tucson Police Department Unit Medal (Twice Awarded)
- Subject Matter Expert in Police Use of Force Policy

Law Enforcement

As an Assistant Chief commanded:

- Field Services Bureau
- Investigative Services Bureau
- Support Services Bureau